

PRODUCT SAFETY AND RECALL NOTICE

The following product is subject to a recall.

Snacking Essentials Fruit and Nut 150g

Batch 17157L2 Best Before End March 2018

As a precautionary measure RM Curtis & Co Ltd is recalling one batch of Snacking Essentials Fruit and Nut 150g because it contains Brazil nuts which are not mentioned on the label, although there are correctly labelled other nuts in the pack (cashew nuts, hazelnuts, pecan nuts) and there is allergy advice on the pack to say it may contain other nuts. This means the product is a possible health risk for anyone with an allergy to Brazil nuts.

The batch and the best before end are printed on the back of the bag.

Consumers who purchased this product carrying the above batch code and are allergic to Brazil nuts are advised not to consume the product and to return the product to the shop where it was purchased from.

Other batches or Snacking Essentials products are NOT affected.
